LOUISVILLE JOURNAL.

WHAT IS AN IDOL?-The throne of the kiel of Juggernant was placed on a stupen-lone car or tow-er, about sixty feet in height, resting on wheels which indented the ground deeply, as they turned slowly noder the ponderous machine. Attached to it were six cables, of the size and length of a ship's cable, hy which the people drew it along. Upon the tower were the priests and setellites of the idol, errounding his throne. The idol is a block of wood, aving a frightful visage painted black, with a dis-orted month of a bloody color. His arms are of cold, and he is dressed in gorgeous apparel. The we other idols are of white and yellow color. Five elephants preceded the three Cowers, having towerg flags, dressed in crimena caparisons, and having

The Americans desire and contemplate peace and nothing but peace on the day of the election. They have notoriously desired unthing else in years past. If any Democratic leader, as a means of exciting or as an excuse for exciting his followers to prepare for an encounter on the day of the election, talls them that he are not prepared to the contemplate peace and nothing else in years past. If any Democrate on the tall the election of four, he was the very last man whose name was recorded upon the poll-locks in that election.

We must presume that there are some bonest and exciting his followers to prepare for an encounter on the day of the election, tells them that he apprehends an attempt of the American party to pravent the polling of a fair and full vota, he is guilty of the basest lying and deception for the most atrocious purpares. The Democratic leaders have no thought that the American party will imangurate violence on the election day, and, if they falsely profess to entertain such a thought, their whole intent is to get up trouble by arming their duped rank and file against imaginary dangers.

There is not in all the nation a city where, since 1855, elactions have been more quiet than lu Louis that the Atthe close of one election in our city aince that period, our principal Democratic editor bore strong textinony to the peace and quietade of the day; he proclaimed that the permanent rule of law and order was firmly recetabilished among us; he epoke glowingly of the reviving confidence of all
